Party of 10 for mid-week family celebration; We all had a great time in Galway . In particular, at the Ardaulain. ALL STAFF – from front door, through Reception, Restaurants, Bar, Night Porter and Housekeeping ensured we relaxed in the hotel's wonderful ambience and enjoyed the excellent food and hotel facilities, including beautiful grounds. Certainly a “showcase” for the best of Irish tourism / hospitality, and exceptional value .

Looking forward to staying again in the not too distant future.

I stayed in the ardilaun with my mother last weekend. What a pleasant experience. The staff are so friendly and courteous. The leisure centre is fabulous. The lobby is lovely to sit I. And watch the world go by. The rates are very reasonable for such a lovely hotel. I last stayed here 11 years ago when my brother had his wedding reception here. I also had mine here 24 years ago. I certainly won't leave it as long again to stay in. The ardilaun. One of the bar staff told me that the recession hasn't hit young all and I can definitely see why. Keep up the good work

Hadn't been to Galway for a while but was there on business last week. The Ardilaun is the best hotel in Galway if not in Ireland. Lovely quiet and seriously comfortable rooms, great staff, free onsite parking and lovely grounds for a stroll around. Absolutely a haven of peace in a busy city. Will be going back for a longer stay this year with dog!!

I had the great pleasure of staying with you last November. As somebody who has been bitten by the traveling bug I rarely holiday in Ireland. (Shame on me) When i stayed with you last year I had one of the best experiences of my life. I was lucky to be upgraded to one of the lovely suites on arrival. The service and the food was superb. I have to give a very specail mention to the waiter in the bar called Robert. The attention that he showed to each customer was second to none! I have recommended your hotel to dozens of people since I was there. In fact seven couples that i recommended it to have stayed there and have enjoyed it as much as I have. I cant wait until November for my next stay.

Keep up the amazing work!

My friend and I found our stay in the Ardilaun a very pleasant experience. The reception staffs were very helpful and welcoming, check-in only took a few minutes and there was a member of staff waiting to show us to our room. The room was exceptionally clean, warm, and the beds were very comfortable. The room also had all modern amenities. The bathroom was clean and spacious (as far as I know we were in the older part of the hotel). The food was wonderful and very reasonably priced; the service was second to none. All the staff were helpful and friendly. The hotel is situated near to Galway city centre, yet far enough out for peace and quiet...the gardens are fabulous. We did not use the leisure club or the beauty salon (maybe next time) but heard from other friends that both were 'out on their own'. I do not have one negative thing to say about our stay there...it was home from home! We have stayed in many hotels over the years; we consider this one to be in our top 5. Will we stay there again?... DEFINITELY. Would I recommend this hotel to friends and family?.. CERTAINLY.
