What is it about a cocktail that makes us feel that bit special? The skill and attention needed to create each one? Or the unique balance of selected ingredients combined to create a unique and exciting flavour? We'll mix one up while you decide.....

Cosmopolitan

"Made famous by four ladies in The Big Apple"

Finlandia Lime Vodka, Cointreau, Cranberry Juice & Lime Juice shaken over ice

Mojito

"Three flavours of Cuba combine to make this (in)famous tippie, the favoured drink of Ernest Hemmingway"

Bacardi Gold Rum, Fresh Mint, Fresh Lime Wedges & sugar syrup, muddled together and topped with soda water

Whisky Sour

"An Englishman named Elliot Stub discovered this combination while experimenting in his Peruvian bar in 1872"

Jim Beam Bourbon, Lemon Juice & Sugar Syrup, shaken over ice

Appletini

"Not just for the ladies & the official drink of a certain social networking site...."

Finlandia Vodka, Mickey Finn's Sour Apple & Cointreau shaken over ice

Butterscotch Daiquiri

"American mining engineers created the original in a bar not far from Daiquiri village, near Santiago, Cuba in 1901"

Bacardi Gold Rum, Butterscotch Liqueur, Lime Juice, Fresh Cream & Sugar Syrup, shaken over ice

Margarita

"Barkeeps on both sides of the Mexican / U.S. border lay claim to inventing this popular & refreshing drink"

Tequila, Cointreau & Fresh Lime Juice served in a salt rimmed glass
